Dear Julia

It was so nice to hear from you today, as I was disappointed when I did not see you last night. I saw [redacted] I heard [redacted] was not feeling well. I came in to late to call any of you and I had to leave right after the meeting.

But I always miss you when I come in and don't see you. I thought the meeting was nice, well attended, but not represented by as many of our group as I would have liked. I am sure the negro people are aware, that all their rights have been so whittled down by both the major parties, that its time to wake up and express their indignation by supporting the Progressive party, or a slate of Independents rather than deal with the political machines that

You know I dont believe in praying all time and sitting down for the things we need to become a reality without work. So I show them by action how we progressive people work. And in turn I hope they will see the need of giving us Cooperation in action as well as in praying. I am so happy to hear that Mr. Brown is improving I hope when his time is up in Arkansas that he will be fully well again.

Remember me and [redacted] my little Grand Daughter to him when you Write. I will do my best to be there for the Breakfast on May 30

I hope You do go to Washington and I can hear from you how well the delegation was able to make the fight for a Federal F.E.P.C.

My Love to You and all my Sojourners [redacted]

are out to destroy the Peace of the world. (2)

[redacted] drove me home, and stayed over to make some Union Contacts for Freedom, as well as for Progressive Party. And if he can get these Union people to move just a little it will make some things possible that could not be other wise. I dont know what will come out of this visit, but I will soon find out. Thank you so much for your letter and the Money Order of $5.00 from the Sojourners I am grateful, and I know the Church will be as soon as they know.

I Consider the Amount sufficient as I had some support from my foreign friends that made possible a little over $40.00 so now the Sojourners Check to add will be close to $50.00 I feel now that the way is open for me to call on the Church to support us in more of our work. and that I shall do.

Mrs. JULIA FORTSON BROWN, 3196 East 23rd Street, Cleveland, voluntarily appeared at the Cleveland Office on December 10, 1950, and stated she had joined the CP in 1947 in Cleveland because she thought the Party was the answer to the Problem of racial discrimination. She stated that she was active in the CP in Cleveland through the summer of 1948 until she began to see the true purpose of the Party and then stopped attending CP affairs.

According to Mrs. BROWN, JOSEPH HILL, CP member who was representing ALBERT YOUNG, a former member of the Ohio State CP committee, then running for councilman in his Ward, approached her in the summer of 1947 requesting permission to place a poster about YOUNG on her front porch. Mrs. BROWN stated that she then became interested in politics and was visited by JOSEPH HILL on several occasions thereafter and attended a few political rallies on behalf of ALBERT YOUNG.

She was subsequently visited by FRIEDA KATZ, Organization Secretary, Cuyahoga County CP, and was invited to several parties held at the home of FRIEDA KATZ. At one of these parties, about Christmas of 1947, Mrs. BROWN signed an application for membership in the CP while in the home of FRIEDA KATZ, 3692 East 146th Street, Cleveland.

Mrs. BROWN stated that she subsequently attended a number of CP meetings and in the spring of 1948 attended a meeting at the Croatian Hall, 63rd and St. Clair Avenue, Cleveland, at which GUS HALL was the principal speaker. She stated that a regular membership card for the CP had been issued to her but that she had destroyed it after she decided to leave the Party in the summer of 1948.

Mrs. BROWN was reinterviewed on June 2, 1951, and furnished additional information regarding Communist activities in the CP

On June 8, 1951, Mrs. BROWN submitted a written report regarding the Communist activities of [redacted] CP members, and [redacted] CP organizer.

On June 9, 1951, Mrs. BROWN submitted a written report regarding a meeting of the Cleveland committee for American-Soviet Understanding which she attended at the residence of [redacted] which meeting was addressed by [redacted] CP members who recently returned from a trip to Europe and the Soviet Union. The meeting was attended by approximately fifty persons and nine CP members were identified by Mrs. BROWN.

On June 16, 1951, Mrs. BROWN submitted a written report reflecting, among other information, that she had been recruited into the CP by FRIEDA KATZ, had paid fifty cents CP dues, received CP literature, and was further informed by FRIEDA KATZ that she would receive instructions through [redacted] Secretary, CP Mt. Pleasant Section.

On June 24, 1951, Mrs. BROWN attended and verbally reported on a Banquet and Testimonial in honor of GUS HALL and sponsored by the Cleveland committee to defend the Constitution, held at the East Side Hungarian Hall, Cleveland. Approximately one hundred seventy-five persons were present. "Peace Bonds" were sold and a total of approximately $2,000. was collected. Mrs. BROWN was able to identify approximately twenty of the CP members who were present at this meeting.

Mrs. BROWN has stated that she was recently visited by [redacted] and invited to attend, as an observer, the "American Peoples Congress and Exposition for Peace" sponsored by the American Peace Crusade, to be held in Chicago, Illinois, June 29, 30, and July 1, 1951, and that she planned to attend this affair.

Re: JULIA FORTSON BROWN
[redacted] b2

Dear Sir,

Remylet 9-10-51 and Bulet 9-18-51 approving payment to BROWN at the rate of $10 per report, not to exceed $60 per month, plus actual expenses incurred for a period of three months effective September 15, 1951.

Since September 15, 1951, the volume of reports submitted by [redacted] is increased and averages several reports each week regarding various meetings. [redacted] was selected by the Communist Party as one of four Negro women delegates to attend the recent "Sojourn for Truth and Justice" to Washington, D.C. and submitted detailed comprehensive information regarding the three-day "Sojourn" which she attended. [redacted] has spent many hours preparing campaign material in connection with the candidacy of MARIE MARIE HAUG, CP member and candidate for the Cleveland Board of Education, and has made her home available on numerous occasions for work on the campaign by CP members. She has been urged to allow her car to be equipped with a loud speaker for use in the campaign.

BROWN has been selected by the CP as a delegate to attend the CP sponsored Founding Convention of the National Negro Labor Council in Cincinnati October 27 and 28, 1951, and has been utilized as a speaker by the CP in the organization of local affiliates of the "Sojourn for Truth and Justice."

BROWN's prestige in the Party has substantially increased. It is therefore recommended that payments to [redacted] in the amount of $10 per report, not to exceed $100 per month, plus actual expenses incurred, be authorized for a three months period beginning November 1, 1951.

Re: JULIA FORTSON BROWN
SECURITY INFORMANT [redacted] b2

Dear Sir:

[redacted] Remylet 10-20-51 and Bulet 10-31-51 approving payments to at the rate of $10.00 per report, not to exceed $100.00 per month, plus actual expenses incurred, for a period of three months, terminating February 1, 1952.

Since submission of mylet, informant has continued to increase her volume of reports and submits on the average of 12 to 15 reports per month. These reports are oral at present, although informant has in the past submitted some written reports. It is obvious that writing is difficult for informant and written reports tend to omit many pertinent details re activities covered. Also, in view of the volume of activity covered, it appears that writing every report, in view of informant's lack of formal education, would be a burden which [redacted] might find unsupportable. Informant is, however, being encouraged to prepare written reports where feasible.

[redacted] has attended the Forming Convention of the National Negro Labor Council in Cincinnati, Ohio, the Midwest Conference of Progressive Party in Chicago, Illinois, a Dinner and Showing of a Film at the Polish Embassy, Washington, D.C., and is tentatively considered as the authorized person to show Polish films in Cleveland. Informant this past week-end was sent to Florida as Ohio representative of the Sojourn for Truth and Justice at the request of the National Office, New York, of the "Sojourn", for the funeral of Mrs. HARRY T. MOORE, wife of murdered Negro NAACP leader in Florida, and called on the Governor of Florida with the delegation protesting the crime.

Informant has also received numerous publications recently direct from the Soviet Embassy, Washington, D.C.

[redacted] is active in Cleveland in the NNLC, an officer in the Sojourn for Truth and Justice, and active in the Progressive Party and the Ohio Bill of Rights Conference (CRC).

Informant's prestige has been steadily increasing in the local organizations and in the eyes of other CP members.

In view of the above, it is recommended that authority be granted to increase reimbursement to [redacted] to $125.00 per month plus actual expenses incurred for a three (3) month period commencing February 1, 1952, contingent, of course, upon continuation of present activity.

Re: [redacted] (INFORMATION RE BOMBING OF HARRY T. MOORE, MIMS, FLORIDA) CIVIL RIGHTS

Dear Sir:

Remytel to Bureau and Miami 1-7-52 concerning captioned informant's scheduled attendance at the funeral of Mrs. HARRY T. MOORE, wife of HARRY T. MOORE, murdered Florida leader of NAACP, Mims, Florida, 1-8-52 at St. James Baptist Church, Mims, as a delegate from the Sojourners for Truth and Justice, Cleveland.

[redacted] arrived at Mims, Florida, at 4:30 P.M., January 8, 1952, missing the funeral of Mrs. MOORE due to poor plane connections from Atlanta, Georgia. In an effort to locate the delegation, of whom informant was a member, informant located [redacted] St. James Baptist Church, [redacted] advised [redacted] that the funeral delegation had returned to Jacksonville and that a lawyer by the name of [redacted] from Jacksonville was seen talking to the delegation at the funeral and could possibly help locate the group for informant.

During the course of the conversation, [redacted] probably due to the fact that informant is Negro, apparently spoke quite freely about the bombing and terrorism in Florida. She stated that she was a very close friend to Mrs. HARRY MOORE (HARRIET) and had visited her at the hospital three days before she died. At that time Mrs. MOORE was making plans for returning home to her work. Mrs. MOORE discussed plans about leaving Mims and going elsewhere to teach. [redacted] advised [redacted] that Mrs. MOORE was feeling quite well before her death and that the negroes felt that the hospital had given her the "black bottle" meaning a kind of poison to "shut her mouth".

Mrs. MOORE, according to [redacted] told her [redacted] at the hospital that they (she and HARRY MOORE) had been getting threats (no elaboration). She said Mrs. MOORE had a very good idea who the "bombers" were. Mrs. MOORE said the FBI had talked to her in the hospital about who she suspected but that she had refused to tell the FBI Agents. She said she had, however, given WALTER WHITE, National leader of NAACP, the name of the person she believed was behind the crime. (WHITE had visited her at the hospital.)

[redacted] further advised that [redacted] said Mrs. MOORE was afraid to tell the FBI who she suspected because she thought the FBI Agents were Ku Klux Klaners. Informant stated she received a definite impression from [redacted] that the people of Mims (Negroes at least) believe the Police and the FBI are somehow connected with the KKK and are thus afraid to tell what they know about this case for fear of retaliation.

[redacted] advised informant that she believes some poor whites in Mims were hired to kill MOORE by a person or persons whose names Mrs. MOORE gave WALTER WHITE.

From her conversation with [redacted] informant advised that the Negroes feel that the Sheriff who recently shot the two Negro prisoners while transporting them is connected with this case. [redacted] told the informant that this Sheriff had told MOORE to "lay off" his investigation of that shooting. Informant was unable to obtain any further details. She said the Negroes are extremely frightened and bitter about the bombing of MOORE.

In Jacksonville, [redacted] met through "Lawyer" [redacted] a family by the name of [redacted] relatives of Mrs. MOORE, who gave her the name of [redacted] whose wife provided a room for informant. While there informant talked to [redacted] Secretary of NAACP, Jacksonville, who stated that the Sheriff accused of shooting the two Negro prisoners had located a white prisoner who told the Sheriff that he had heard the two Negro prisoners planning an escape while in the jail. The NAACP had "hidden" a Negro woman as a "surprise" witness in the Negro prisoner shooting case.

Director, FBI

There is apparently intense feeling in Florida by Negroes about the bombing of MOORE and many of them seem to connect the Sheriff who shot the Negro prisoners with that case.

[redacted] was unable to provide any further information pertaining to the MOORE case. Extreme care should be taken in any interviews resulting from this information so as to protect the identity of this informant. She was one of approximately 16 or 18 delegates to Mrs. MOORE's funeral from all over the United States. b2

ETHEL FORTSON FUQUA, was.
POTENTIAL SECURITY INFORMANT

Reurlet 2-20-52.

[redacted] furnished the following background data on her sister, ETHEL FORTSON FUQUA: b2

Residence: 5416 South Park, Chicago
Born: June 28, about 1900.
[redacted]
Birthplace: Atlanta, Georgia

ETHEL attended Paine College in Augusta, Georgia, for a year or so, and at the age of about 19 or 20 left Atlanta for Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where she resided near her uncle, HORACE GREELEY FORTSON. She went to Chicago in 1921 or 1922. Mrs. FUQUA then married one JACKSON, first name believed to have been JACK. They were divorced about 6 or 7 months later. She married IRVIN FUQUA around 1927, and were separated prior to World War II. FUQUA died about 1950.

ETHEL has lived on South Park for the past 5 years, and lived previously on St. Lawrence Avenue, Chicago, with her now deceased mother, MAHALIE FORTSON, who died about 5 years ago. Her father, OSCAR FORTSON is also dead.

ETHEL lives with her sister, ARSIE FORTSON MARTIN, [redacted]

ETHEL works at an electrical factory on Michigan Avenue and before that worked in a dress shop for a time. [redacted] b2 b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that she knows of no organizations which ETHEL is a member of and is not a member of the CP as far as she knows.

Informant described her sister, ETHEL, as intelligent, very friendly, and one who makes friends easily [redacted] states that her sister, as far as she knows, is a loyal American.

While informant was in Chicago last Fall for a Progressive Party meeting, ETHEL accompanied her and met several Cleveland CP members, including MYRTLE DENNIS, who, informant advised, was quite impressed with ETHEL. ETHEL has, in the past, visited informant in Cleveland and attended some parties with her sister. ETHEL recently wrote [redacted] b2 that she had joined several organizations in Chicago, whereupon informant states she told her sister to "let that stuff" alone, and that she could not do herself any good in these "progressive" groups, and that only "one in a million" could join the CP. Informant tried to discourage her sister in this matter. On Sunday, March 2, 1952, ETHEL phoned informant and asked her what would she say if she could be "one in a million"? Informant stated she did not believe it, and would not discuss it over the phone.

[redacted] advised that she feels it is possible that ETHEL may have gotten the impression that informant is not in the CP because of her actual belief in the CP line, although she states she has never told her sister of her connection with this Bureau. ETHEL may have guessed as to informant's real purpose in the CP fronts, but informant states it could only be a guess.

Informant believes, however, that her sister must have taken some steps toward CP front or Party membership.

It is pointed out that extreme care must be used in the possible development of ETHEL FUQUA as an informant inasmuch as any suspicion, et cetera, which may in the future be directed toward FUQUA would possibly harm the work of [redacted] in Cleveland due to the fact that some Cleveland CP members know FUQUA.

It is suggested that Chicago, unless you have some information indicating that FUQUA has associated herself with the Communist movement in order to inform on that movement, make no attempt to contact FUQUA until the Bureau weighs the advantages of obtaining an informant in Chicago at the risk of possible exposure of a very valuable Cleveland informant.

Cleveland will furnish any additional information received from [redacted] which may assist Chicago in evaluating the possibilities of FUQUA as an informant.

[redacted] has been furnishing detailed information on the Civil Rights Congress, which has appointed her permanent delegate from the Sojourners for Truth and Justice to the CRC, the Progressive Party, which has appointed her an electoral delegate for the Progressive Party National Convention (one of 10 persons), and on the National Negro Labor Council, which was founded in Cincinnati, Ohio, October, 1951, with [redacted] as an official delegate.

BERT WASHINGTON spoke on the similarity of persecutions visited on negroes and labor and urged solidarity of both groups with the brothers who are foreign and unaturalized.

ABNER GREEN reviewed a number of his experiences in connection with the fight to save the ROSENBERG's and showed the relationship between their fight and all those being persecuted under the Smith and McCarron Acts. He called for a repeal of the Smith, McCarron and similar acts. He urged letters to be written to the President for the repeal of the acts and for encouragement of those imprisoned previously under these acts. He called upon everyone to buy a copy of the ROSENBERG's pamphlet (Free the Rosenbergs), advised strengthening of the Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born and referred also to the case of HARRY BRIDGES and how the powerful forces in the BRIDGES union had brought pressure and opinion to fight extradition of BRIDGES. MEMO, SAC

[redacted] took notes for the Progressive Party. This meeting was arranged by the P. P. on the Heights. Only those who were on the Heights contributed to the case of whiskey. b6 b7C

[redacted] in his introduction merely commented about the pleasure of having the Presidential candidate's wife, who serves in his stead while he is imprisoned, but not for long, because we hope to set the stage so that the right people will be jailed instead of progressives like HALLINAN, whose only crime was the defense of one of labor's strongest defenders of labor rights, HARRY BRIDGES. That was his introduction.

"Mrs. HALLINAN then spoke and she brought out a few points with regard to her children; how they were given to understant why their father was imprisoned; and they have a working class knowledge of the struggle of the P. P., what they are working for and striving for.

"She would up by telling that they are one of the biggest property owners in California. She said that they own apartment buildings downtown, and they permit colored people to move in. She mentioned about her own personal holdings, which she has as a result of trust funds and endowments; and she is now beginning to feel the sharpness of mortgage holders on a few of her apartment buildings, because she has permitted colored to move in. The mortgagors are insisting on payment of mortgages, because of her progressive policy of moving in colored. That tended to depreciate the value of the apartment buildings. She stated that she was in daily communication with her children, and they tell her to stay as long as she has an audience to talk to, and they give her the driving force to campaign for her husband. She is in daily communication with her husband by mail, and he now states that since the first two weeks, when the restriction with regard to his mail coming in and answering, that he now has unlimited permission, and received as much of the mail that comes in. He is imprisoned with other political prisoners on McNeil Island, because they are fighting for what they believe. He says he is making a lot of converts in prison to the progressive cause.

"She was asked various questions.

MEMO, SAC

[redacted] asked what she would estimate her property holdings and how did she reconcile her position as property owner and landlord and fighter for progressives and tenants, as she said she had often done. She said that definitely for good reason she had never bothered to ascertain what she was worth. She was not concerned with that, because the C.P.A.'S take care of the records and let her know what the profits and what the deficits are.

"Later I overheard [redacted] state that in her opinion the selecting committee had made a bad choice in the HALLINANS in that they were vastly wealthy and could not appreciate the struggles, and would go back to the lush living after the campaign is over, and the workers and the lesser livers would have to be stuck with the stigma of whatever abuse comes out of this year's campaign. This statement was made to JULIA BROWN.

[redacted] asked her whether she knew if [redacted] had received the statement of Supreme Court Justice JACKSON, with regard to his opinion on a case, he said in Cleveland, where in his dissenting opinion with regard to lawyers standing up for their clients irrespective of the clients political feeling She said that HALLINAN had received it, and she had received a copy of the statement.

b7C

[redacted] made the collection speech. She pointed out that since the sponsors of the reception were the Progressive Party on the Heights, she was going to start with the Progressive Party on the Heights in making her appeal. She reported that in order that Mrs. HALLINAN and [redacted] when he is out, would be able to go throughout the country amd make the type of speeches in support of his candidacy, that much depended on how much could be raised by sizable contributions, and she would up by asking who has $100.00 or more to contribute ot the campaign fund. [redacted] gave $100; [redacted] gave $100; [redacted] gave $100; [redacted] gave $100; and [redacted] partner or associate gave $100. Now she said, any more $100's? She thanked those who were able to give $100. She said, are there any who can give $75.00

gave $75.00. Nobody gave $50.00 from the Heights, but they then opened up the general collection for everybody on the Heights. Now she says our hosts have contributed over $600.00. How much are we as guests and friends of the P. P. from other parts of the city going to give? She said we can't afford to do it like they do on the Heights, because we are working people, but we should contribute something. JULIA BROWN started with $25.00. and JULIA was the only one who gave $25.00. [redacted] gave $5; [redacted] gave $5; [redacted] gave $5; the man just returned from Israel gave $5; [redacted] gave $5. Then the reamining people gave $1.00 or more. It was estimated that close to $800.00 was collected. This was turned over to DON ROTHENBERG.

"The man just returned from Israel then spoke. He has been here for 2 weeks. He is the representative of the Coop Movement that represents 13% of the voters in Israel. He is a refugee from some other place. All of those in his particular Coop Group are also refugees. He briefly pointed out how they differed with the policies of the Government, who are attempting to become satellites of the British and Americans. They asked his questions, how it differed from our farm coops, and he said it was different because they staked out land for the experimental purposes. Our coops are capitalistic institutions Not too many questions were asked him. He is leaving within the next few weeks, and is returning to Israel. He did not indicate what his mission was, but is here for a study of the techniques.

[redacted] received a call, and then made an announcement that ROBESON had just spoken to 4,000 Canadians at Blaine, Wash. Everybody just went wild with this news, because previously he and AHLLINAN had been prevented from going to Canada to some Convention.

"ROTHENBERG made the announcement that [redacted] would chair the meeting at the New Star Baptist Church, and that she had been unanimously elected Sunday at the Progressive Party meeting in Columbus as State Chairman of the P. P., and in that post she would be Chairman of the meeting tonight. Everybody "was asked to attend, and be prepared to give an overwhelming welcome to the new State Chairman, who had taken [redacted] place. They said that [redacted] had accepted a scholarship to some foundation.

Further that based on reports, this restaurant where the attack took place is reputed to be a regular hongout for hoodlums which must be known to the police.

"FRIEDA KATZ speaking in the name of the Civil Rights Congress read off a list of other attacks on negroes by even the Cleveland Police Department, citing the instances of those who had been shot and killed by the police who were negroes in the past two years, numbering approximately twelve. She urged the Mayor to call for a public hearing by City Council's Public Safety Committee to hear and receive recommendations from the citizens as to what should be done by the police department to eliminate hoodlum gangs.

[redacted] of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers stated that he, as a white person, was alarmed that the Mayor didn't have facts in this and other cases of hoodlum attacks and cautioned the Mayor that today's paper gave another account of six hoodlums attacking citizens on Shore Drive leaving him to believe that unless the Mayor take immediate steps to check these hoodlum attacks it would extend not only to Negroes but also to other minority groups in the community. b6 b7C

[redacted] of the Morning Star Baptist Church, urged the Mayor to act promptly and swiftly so that Cleveland could retain the name of "The best location in the nation".

"An unidentified negro member of the Committee recommended to Mayor BURKE that the Safety Department institute six week courses in Inter-Racial Relations, to which the Mayor expressed surprising interest. 'I WAS A SPY FOR THE FBI'

Housewife bares Communist plot to infiltrate civil rights organizations and Negro churches

FOR eight years and ten months, Julia Clarice Brown, a former Cleveland, Ohio, housewife, was an FBI "informant" in the Communist Party and Communist front groups.

The personable woman, who is now living in retirement on the West Coast, penetrated Communist circles in the early 50's, rose to the position of treasurer of her section and survived, at great danger to herself, attempts by party toughs to weed out FBI undercover workers.

During this period, Mrs. Brown provided valuable information to the government on the Communist Party and its efforts to infiltrate the NAACP, other civil rights organizations and Negro churches. She slipped Communist documents to the FBI and wrote regular reports on Communist-inspired meetings which were attended, she says, by singer Paul Robeson and other Negroes.

Mrs. Brown carried off her masquerade with such aplomb that Communist colleagues offered to give her a party when she gave up the work last June and moved to the West Coast. And she received Christmas cards from some of her former associates as late as last December. For the Ohio Communist Party, this exclusive article will confirm for the first time what was suspected but never proven: Comrade Julia was, indeed, an FBI agent. For the former Comrade Julia, this article marks the end of a long nightmare of pretending and intrigue. When the 55-year-old woman turned in her final report last April, she was on the verge of mental and physical collapse.

"I was going just about nuts," she says, "and my health was going. I had contracted arthritis, running around to meetings late at night in the rain and cold and snow. And then last year, I almost had a nervous breakdown. I had to stop. I was being taxed. I haven't gotten back to my real self yet. I guess you never do."

Despite the high price she paid, Mrs. Brown is convinced that her undercover activities were right and necessary. Her long association with Communists has convinced her that the party is not interested in the Negro's struggle for civil rights. In fact, she says, the Communist Party is prostituting the legitimate grievances of Negroes to further its own end. It is vitally necessary, she adds, for Negro Americans to understand six points about the party and its current program:

1) "They have always believed in the overthrow of the government. They preach it. They teach there is no other way to gain their ends. They talk in the open now about coexistence, but they get in a meeting and if they're sure everybody is loyal, they'll let you know there is no such thing as peaceful coexistence."

2) "The Communist Party is weaker today among Negroes than it was 10 years ago. Negroes are opening their eyes. The party is preaching but not practicing. There is as much prejudice in the Communist Party as there is in Mississippi. They pick a few Negroes to represent all the rest of the Negroes. Communists pretend that they don't believe in white chauvinism, but there is plenty of segregation in the party."

3) Top Red officials are "disillusioned by the response of Negroes. In Cleveland, New York and Chicago, from 1948 to 1951, there were a goodly number of Negro members. So many of them are not active today, are not paying their dues and are not attending meetings. Over the entire United States, I feel sure there are no more than a few real dyed-in-the-wool Negro Communists. There are loads of sympathizers, of course, and a lot of fellow-travelers, but there aren't many dyed-in-the-wool Negro Communists."

4) "Negro leadership must remain alert. Communists are barging in every chance they get. And the greatest opportunity for mass penetration is what is going on now among Negroes." She says the party recently ordered an all-out drive in the Negro community. The NAACP: She thinks the Reds have "little or no" influence on the NAACP as a whole. But at one time, she says, Red big-wigs boasted that the Chicago chapter of the NAACP had been successfully infiltrated. Subsequently, she reports, Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, and local leaders moved in and cleaned up the chapter. Negro churches: "They have attempted to infiltrate every Negro organization. The churches, especially. The last meeting I went to, they were talking about infiltrating the churches more. They want members to join the church and be active in the clubs and societies. They are even trying to get into the Roman Catholic Church." Mrs. Brown adds: "I know a young man, a member of the Communist Party, who finished school and the party sent him to school to become a minister. He is now assistant minister of a church in Cleveland. He is a Communist. I have been to meetings with him. They are doing that now, sending

Reenacting bold coup she pulled for FBI, Mrs. Julia C. Brown looks on as husband, James Brown (l.), transfers records of Communist-front organization to car of Federal agent (posed by model). Unsuspecting leaders of organization had asked her to hide records in basement of her home. Mrs. Brown relaxes (opp. page) in yard of West Coast home.

On campaign plane, he confers with other members of Kennedy team. With newspaper background, he understands problems of reporters. With political experience, he knows value of timing. He is called one of calmest aides on Kennedy team.

In White House office, Hatcher checks schedule with Miss Gill Cowan, a receptionist. During campaign, he assisted Salinger on every major assignment. Said one newsman: "When Pierre slept, Hatch worked or vice versa. They were a 24-hour team."

At Capitol City Press club meeting, Hatcher, Salinger (2nd fr. l.) greeted Negro newsmen. They were made honorary members. With President sensitive to minorities, they will probably widen opportunities for Negro newsmen at White House.

In early days of party work, Mrs. Brown lived in big house on Cleveland's 123rd Street. She married and left her home in Atlanta when she was 17. She lived for long period in Chicago. She completed high school after her marriage.

Last home in Cleveland was brick house on Edgewood Avenue. Neighbors believed she was dedicated Communist, shunned her. In varied career, Mrs. Brown has worked as waitress, secretary, window trimmer. She moved to Cleveland in 1943.

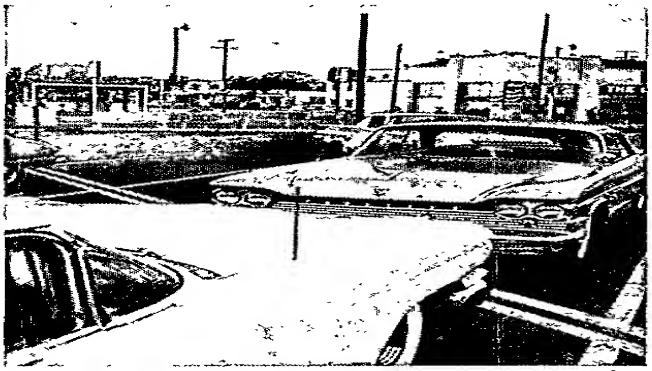
party members to school to become ministers."

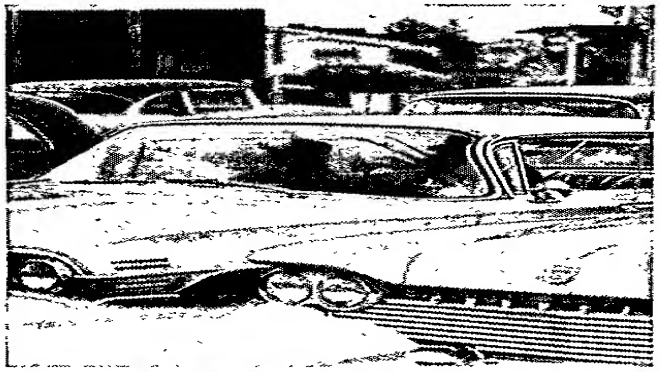
5) In a stepped-up drive to win more Negro members, particularly Negro men, the party is using sex bait, i. e., white women, parties and dances. "They use dances, house parties, anything, to get people in the party. It's an old Communist method. They use women as bait."

6) The extent of Communist penetration among Negroes is sometimes exaggerated by well-meaning but uninformed persons. She disagrees with former President Truman who was quoted as saying the sit-in movement was Communist-inspired. Mrs. Brown, who attended state and national party conventions, says: "The sit-in movement was not Communist-inspired, but the Communists have tried to infiltrate it. Truman was wrong. The Communists would have never inspired a movement based on passive resistance. They don't believe in that. They don't do anything that's decent. But after it started, they tried to jump on the bandwagon."

Mrs. Brown offers these observations in the hope that American Negroes will take them to heart and avoid the snares and pitfalls of the party. She learned the hard way. Thirteen years ago, she became involved with the party during a local election in Cleveland. At that time, Mrs. Brown and her husband, James, were solid and substantial citizens of the community. They owned their own home. They were Episcopalians. Mr. Brown was a capitalist of sorts. He was in the contract hauling business and he owned three trucks.

But Mrs. Brown was bored with "being just a housewife" and she burned with a passion to do something about the injustices of the world. The Communists cleverly exploited her dissatisfaction. Little by little, they drew her into their orbit. They praised her work in the political campaign. They invited her to parties. They praised her ingenuity, her boldness and her drive. Finally, in December of 1947, she was given the "rush act" at a Christmas party. Mrs. Brown says she was recruited by Frieda Zucker Katz, who was one of the leaders of the Civil Rights Congress.





Making contact with FBI agent in reenactment staged with professional model, Mrs. Brown turns over documents and reports on party plans. She went to meetings by indirect route. She says she has been in an FBI office only one time in her life.

Comrade Julia, as party members called her, soon discovered that the work of an FBI undercover agent involves more day-to-day drudgery than cloak-and-dagger excitement. She attended Communist meetings three and four and sometimes five times a week. She went to house parties and dances. And she wrote reports on everything she saw and heard. At least once a month, she met an FBI agent and gave him documents and other material she had gathered. She also communicated with the FBI by mail and by telephone. Her FBI code name was "C. G. End."

"The FBI expected plenty of you," she says. "I had to watch and be able to describe and identify people at meetings. I had to listen very carefully to what was said and who said it. I had to look for identifying marks on people I didn't know; I had to remember their height, age, color of eyes, etc., I was just nervous all the time. I was driven on one hand by the Communists and on the other by the FBI. I wasn't driven by the FBI, but they had standards for you to come up to and you struggled to come up to them."

One of the meetings Mrs. Brown says she reported to the FBI was held at a hall on Auburn Avenue on the West Side of Cleveland. She says Paul Robeson was one of the main speakers. She says she went up to the rostrum and talked to Robeson after the meeting. "I knew him personally," she says. "I have met him at Communist Party conventions and meetings at least four or five times."

The housewife-turned-spy says her biggest coup as an agent was the turning over to the FBI of the records of a Communist-front organization. She says one of the leaders of the organization asked her to hide the records in her basement. "I put the records in my basement," she says, "and then I called the FBI. They had me get my husband and bring the records down behind the Cleveland Indians ball park. They checked the records and returned them the same night. That was a big job. I was kind of proud of that."

Mrs. Brown's neighbors and friends did not share her pride. It was generally known in the community that she was a Communist. And she was persona non grata to old friends and acquaintances. People who

Recalling her experiences as undercover agent, Mrs. Brown runs gamut of emotions. Her expressive face mirrors uncertainty, anger and amusement. "I have never said I was working for the FBI," she says. "I worked with the FBI for my country."

"Frieda asked me to sign my name to a long piece of paper," Mrs. Brown says. "I had no time to read it, but I was interested in joining an organization that was fighting for civil rights and so I joined. I had a certain ambition to do something that needed to be done for me and my people. So here, I thought, is a group of white people on my side. At first, you would think they are the finest people in the world. Absolutely no difference. No segregation. It was just as if they didn't know the difference between Negro and white. It's only when you are deeply embedded in the party that you find out what's behind all this."

It didn't take Mrs. Brown long to see through the veils of the illusion. She realized after a few meetings that she had a red bear by the tail. The wild talk about revolutions and overthrowing the government frightened her. And then, before she could get her balance, the party asked her for $100 to help finance party leaders who were going underground to avoid arrests under the Smith Act and the Nixon-Mundt Bill. Clearly, Mrs. Brown thought, this is no ordinary political party.

The Cleveland housewife also objected to the strict thought control imposed on party members. In 1948, she broke with the party over the rival candidacies of President Truman and Henry Wallace. "I worked with the party," she explained, "to put Henry Wallace over. And I continued going to meetings. But I became sick of what they were saying about America and I took Wallace's picture off my house and put up Truman's picture. After Truman won, Frieda Katz told me I could never become a Communist because I wouldn't let them guide me."

Six months later, Mrs. Brown went to the FBI and reported what she had done. After the interview, she went home and tried to forget the whole miserable experience. Then, about a year later, an FBI agent called on her and asked her to go back into the party as an undercover agent. Mrs. Brown said she would try. She started mingling with Communists. She distributed leaflets and made herself available for party causes. She was later reinstated in the party.

Reliving tense moment, Mrs. Brown looks in shop window and realizes that she is being followed. "When I was under suspicion," she says, "I was followed constantly —every place. They thought that when I left a meeting I would meet the FBI."

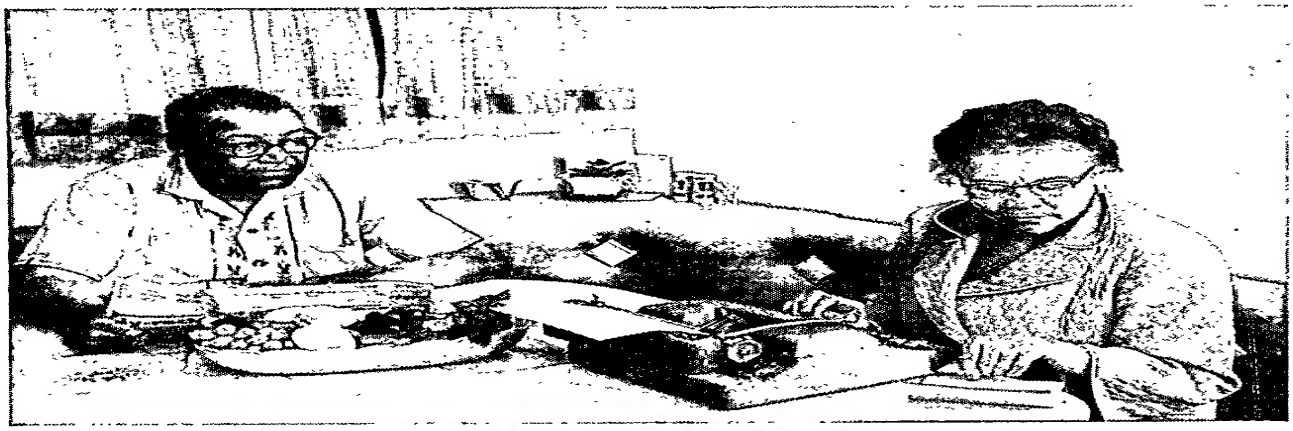
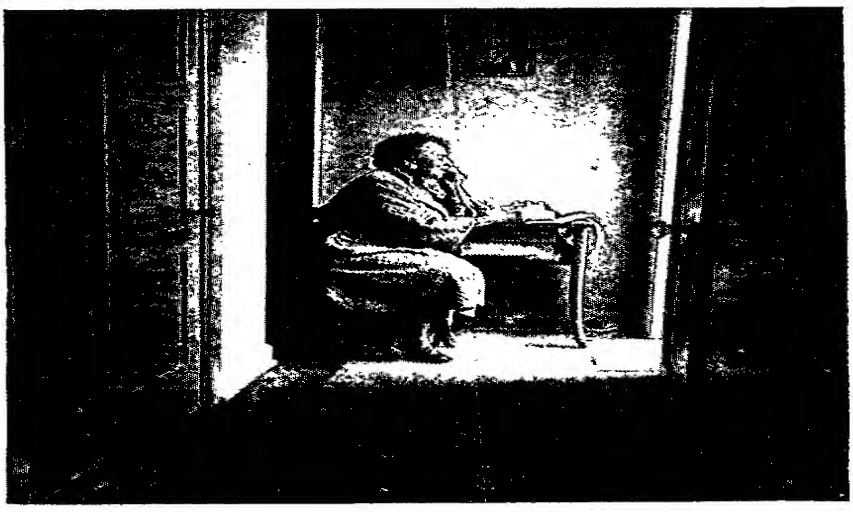
used to stop by for a friendly chat started avoiding her. Old friends cut her dead in the streets.

"I was isolated," Mrs. Brown observes. "I had one or two dear friends, but the others just walked away from me. I was isolated out of the Democratic party. I was a committeeman and judge in my precinct. But they pushed me out altogether. I was hurt very much there, because I loved my work. Even the neighborhood clubs refused to accept me. I was just something that smelled to them."

Mrs. Brown could have dispelled this fog of distrust with a word, but she couldn't say the word and so she suffered in silence. Only her husband and one or two other persons were privy to her secret. She was even barred from confiding in her minister. "That's why I lost my health," she says. "I couldn't sit down and explain to anyone. I had to keep to myself and pray and work out things the best way I could."

Mr. Brown, who was an innocent bystander, also suffered. One day





Writing report, Mrs. Brown checks her notes as husband, James Brown, looks on. She calls in a report to FBI (l.). Husband says: "I'm glad to see her get some rest. Back in Cleveland, she was out half the night in the rain, sleet and snow."

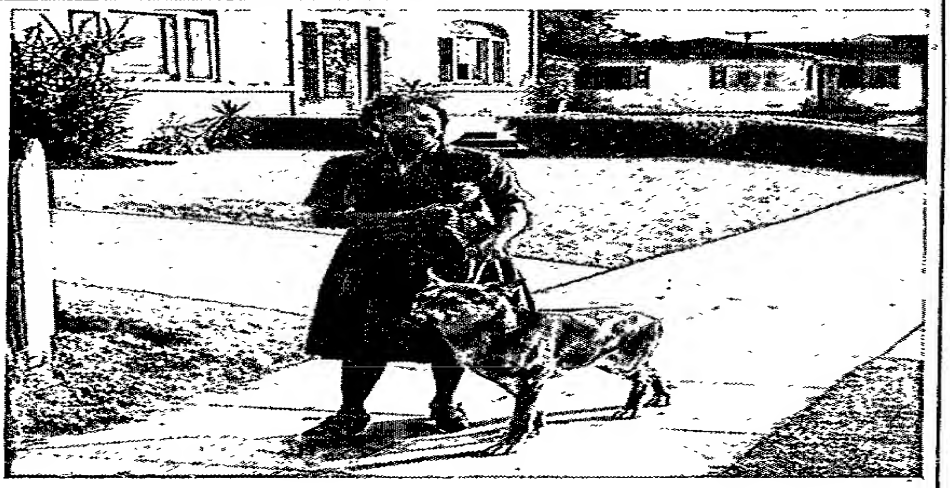
At West Coast home, Mrs. Brown calms German shepherd dog which she bought for protection during days as undercover agent. Dog, which underwent intensive training, becomes unmanageable when strange person approaches Mrs. Brown.



Walking dog, she enjoys comparative carefree life of housewife. She recently joined church in new community. She dropped out of church while she was in party, says: "That's one thing I wouldn't let them do. I wouldn't let them make me infiltrate my church."

a man called him and cancelled the insurance on his car and three trucks. "Sorry," the man said. "Personal reasons." This blow was softened by a good Samaritan—apparently the FBI. The manager of another insurance company came out and wrote insurance on the car and trucks.

There were other blows that Mrs. Brown had to face alone. She says she faced a big crisis of conscience when she was ordered by the party to infiltrate the NAACP. "I went into it," she says, "with two faces. I went in to do a real job for the NAACP and to make reports back to the Communist Party the way I saw fit. I tried to be fair to the NAACP and false to the Communists. I didn't intend to harm the NAACP in any way. I'm 100 per cent with the NAACP and I think they are doing a wonderful job. Top government officials are aware that the NAACP is legal and is working in the American way for first-class citizenship for all Americans."

The undercover agent was rescued from her dilemma when an NAACP official recognized her as a Communist and spread the word around. "They didn't say anything to me," she reports, "but you could feel the air getting cold. They didn't allow me to move in any direction. Oh, they are smart guys down in Cleveland, those NAACP guys."

During the last years of her service, Mrs. Brown was under suspicion in the party. On one occasion, two party officials walked up to her and demanded that she give them the notes she was writing. "They told me," she recalls, "that they didn't want me to lose the notes and have them fall into unfriendly hands. 'Why certainly,' I said, tearing up the notes at the same time. 'Certainly. I didn't know that.' I tore the paper up into little pieces and gave the pieces to them with a smile."

The former agent believes jealousy played some part in the charges that were brought against her in the party. "There is a lot of jealousy in the party against the few Negroes who accumulate anything. They seem to want to keep the Negro down where they can pull him up when they want to. They want to keep the Negro oppressed. Well, they were jealous of me because I had a three-family home and then bought a nice brick home in Shaker Heights. That was one of the reasons they thought I was working for the FBI. They called me a petty bourgeoisie. Maybe, they couldn't see how I could be a Communist anyway."

The cat and mouse game reached melodramatic heights during the last year of Mrs. Brown's service. She was threatened. Strange men trailed her home from Communist meetings. James Brown says he heard the car pull into the driveway one night and then, almost immediately, he heard a blood-curdling scream. "I ran out," he says, "and I saw one man on our side of the street and two men on the other side. My wife says she screamed when one of the men approached the car. When I ran out, they ran away."

The Browns took preventive measures. They installed a special floodlight system around the house. And they bought King, a big German shepherd who is fiercely devoted to Mrs. Brown.

King, however, was absent on the night that Mrs. Brown faced her greatest trial. She was accused at a party meeting of being "a stool pigeon for the FBI." A woman said she saw her writing down names at a state party meeting. Mrs. Brown denied the charge. "I told them that I didn't have to write down the names of people I knew. And I couldn't write down the names of people I didn't know. I fought back with everything I had. I had to fight back, because I was 'sore afraid,' as the Bible says. I was afraid inside, but I didn't show it outside. They have a way of dealing with you when you don't act right, like beating you with a hose."

Fighting with her back against the wall, feigning indignation and injured innocence, Mrs. Brown outtalked her accusers and the matter was dropped. A few months later, she left the party and went to the West Coast to live.

"I hate what I left," she says, "I was very glad to get away from it. I am so relieved. I have to adjust myself and find new friends and even learn how to act among these people. The almost nine years took everything away. I forgot the fine things I was used to doing and thinking. Being in the Communist Party drags you down and degrades you. When I left, I couldn't think good. I was crabby and cross. I seemed to have had to do it the hard way. One thing that helped to make it hard for me is that my education was limited. I didn't go to college. I only went through high school."

Mrs. Brown, who was born in Atlanta, Georgia, and migrated to the North when she was 17, refuses to say how much money she was paid by the FBI. She says simply that the FBI paid her expenses. And she insists that she would do it again if it were necessary.

"Some people," she concludes, "will look down on me, but as for myself, I will, as I always have, hold my head high and be very proud and grateful that I had the privilege to serve my country as any loyal American should do. And if I am ever asked or see any reason to serve on my own again, I will proudly do so."

Making new life, Mrs. Brown works in garden of West Coast home. She now belongs to one of America's most exclusive groups—the handful of agents known to have joined party for FBI. She does not fear harassment some ex-agents have suffered.

The following is the verbatim report of [redacted] dated 9-23-52 received by SA [redacted] on 10-1-52. The original memo will be found as serial 5 of [redacted]

" Cleveland, Ohio
September 23rd, 1952

" On Monday September 15, 1952 at 8:30 A.M. Freda Katz and Julia Brown had breakfast with WILLIAM PATTERSON of New York, National head of the Civil Rights Congress at [redacted] home [redacted] The private conference was called to talk over the failure of the C.R.C. in Cleveland, and what could be done to improve it.

Freda told Patterson that every thing was put on her shoulders, and she did not have enough people to help, Pat said if she didn't act as if she knew every thing she could get plenty of help. It seemed as if Freda had talked to Pat about Julia, but it also seemed that Pat had waited to give Freda most of the answers in Julia's present. Pat wanted to know why Julia was not back in the communist party, and Freda said it was because Julia wanted to get in when every body was trying to get out, at the time when it was the hottest time, then Pat told Freda if she did not trust Julia, to put Julia out in front, and have her to go to Church clubs and other out-side clubs to speak in favor of the C.R.C., and other places where Freda could not go. Pat also advised Freda not to treat Julia the way she would treat [redacted] for there were two different classes.

Pat told Freda he did not want [redacted] as Chairman of the C.R.C., because he did not have the personality that an executive should have, but [redacted] was a good man to have around, for he had experience, and knew the struggles of the negro, and that he wanted Freda to teach [redacted] Marx and Lenin, because [redacted] will come in handy some day. This was said at the breakfast table, after breakfast was over, Freda called [redacted] over to talk. Patterson wanted to know about the Negro Labor Council from Fred , how and what they were doing to retain their membership, Pat said he heard on the night that Paul Roberson sang here that the crowd was bored by the [redacted] woman reading the poem by Beulah Richardson, and that the Council made a mistake by not having Julia read the poem. Freda and Fred said the Negro Labor Council drove [redacted] away from them because they gave her too much to do. This [redacted] the man who was shot by a policeman. Pat told Freda to rally around police brutality to show the public what the CRC could and would do, and she will have new members and be able to get the old ones back. After a few minutes Freda called [redacted] and made an appointment for 1:30, she asked Julia if she knew where the Standard Building was and Julia told her no, Freda then said she would show Julia, so Julia, Freda, and Patterson went to [redacted] office. Patterson thanked him for his kindness, they talked over the Davis brothers case, this case is where the men were suppose to have been beaten up by the police, talked about the Wooden case, altho' [redacted] hadn't heard much about that case. [redacted] said the C.R.C. had a cut and dried case against the city on the Davis case, but that he would look into the Wooden case and advise Freda about it. From what was gathered [redacted] is the official adviser.

After the three left [redacted] office, they went to the Cleveland Plane Dealer newspaper office having a 3: O'clock appointment with a Mr. name forgotten he is the Managing Editor, a man about sixty 5Ft 2In. 145 lbs cripple and walks with a cane. Patterson thanked him for giving the Davis case publicity and asked him to do like wise with the Wooden case, and the Un-American Activities Co mittee. This man asked Patterson his full name and address, the city he was from and the organization he heads, he received the information which he wrote down. The manager had to take a plane at 3:30 so he had only fifteen minutes to talk to Patterson, as Pat was late for the appointment. Leaving the Plane Dealer, the three decided to stop at [redacted] home at [redacted] which they did and had dinner about 4:0'clock. [redacted] and Pat talked, and [redacted] told Pat that [redacted] was not a fit person to be Chairman of the C.R.C. [redacted] Pat wanted to know whose choice was [redacted] for chairman, [redacted] told Pat it was Freda's, Freda tried to deny it and almost cried.

MEMO SAC

Pat asked Freda to call the Air-Port to see about the 6:30 plane she did and Pat was waiting at the gate, Freda showed Julia a man Freda said was an F.B.I. following Pat back to New York, she said she knew the dogs any place she saw them. After the plane left Freda said she was going home to have a big cry."

Care should be used in disseminating the above information to paraphrase it so as not to reveal the identity of the informant.

Re: [redacted] b2

Dear Sir:

Remylet 4-15-52 and Bulet 4-23-52 authorizing payment to captioned informant at the rate of $150.00 per month plus actual expenses incurred for a period of six months terminating November 1, 1952.

Since submission of mylet, informant has furnished a total of 45 typewritten reports plus a great deal of CP and CP front literature. Her reports continue to show improvement in content and form.

[redacted] has, during this period, submitted detailed information concerning the CRC, including the current membership list, the National Negro Labor Council, the Progressive Party, the Sojourners for Truth and Justice, plus the results of personal contacts with CP functionaries such as FRIEDA KATZ, CRC Executive Secretary, and WILLIAM PATTERSON, National Secretary of the CRC from New York. KATZ is showing a marked interest in informant, particularly in regard to her ability in the negro field. PATTERSON, on a recent visit to Cleveland, made pointed inquiry and criticism of KATZ in her handling of informant, pointing out that she must be treated as a "middle-class" citizen and not as most negroes are classed.

It appears that informant is greatly enhancing her position in Cleveland since she is now treasurer of the Cleveland Chapter of the NNLC, and also with PATTERSON's personal interest in her.

In view of the above, it is recommended that authority be granted to continue payment to informant at the rate of $150.00 per month plus necessary expenses as actually incurred for a period of 6 months effective November 1, 1952.

Very truly yours,

Miss Julia Brown
3196 East 123rd Street
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Miss Brown:

It is our privilege to invite you to attend the Congress of the Peoples for Peace which will convene in Vienna, December 12th, 1952.

The Congress in Vienna has been inspired by men and women of good will in all lands who have a deep concern that a peaceful settlement of international tensions be found and that the horrors of war be averted. Without regard to race, nationality, religious faith or political opinion, seekers for peace will come from eighty or more countries to talk together, in friendly fellowship, in an effort to find ways to live in peace together.

We believe that because of your own dedication to peace and friendship among the peoples of the world, and because of your position of influence in the American community, you will have a vital contribution to make to this great discussion. Out of your experience you will be able to interpret the problems of peace, as the American people see them, to the hundreds of equally concerned men and women who will come from all parts of the world.

At Vienna, the various national groups will present the issues and solutions as they see them. There will be a free give and take. You will have the opportunity to speak without reserve out of your heart and independent convictions.

We trust you will accept our invitation to be present at the Congress. We stand ready to help you in any way possible with such matters as securing a passport and travel arrangements.

You will be interested to know that there are religious, trade union and civic bodies that have expressed an interest in helping persons go to Vienna who can represent various viewpoints with respect to winning the peace.

Won't you let us know at the earliest moment whether you can plan to attend the Congress for Peace in Vienna?

Sincerely yours,

Willard Uphaus

"The chairman of the meeting was a [redacted] who spoke for awhile and stated, "How could Eisenhower in 45 mins. go over the entire Rosenberg case & pass sentance.' He said, 'Eisenhower cannot & should not run our country like he did our army & court martial like he did in the army. He reported that two carloads of young people will go down to Washington D.C. from his state to keep vigil & that there will be even more car loads going down. He later introduced Mrs. Morton Sobell who was the main speaker of the evening. She spoke with a low & half whining voice which seemed to influence the audience somewhat. She went over the case & it was a repitition of the previous meeting. She stated that one witness by the name of Schnieder lied on the stand & the F.B.I. were in back of him for it. She also thought that F.B.I. agent John A. Harrington was not fair. She also stated that David Greenglass told all to the FBI agents, yet when he was on the stand they made it appear as though it was his lawyer who had persuaded him to confess, and he who had pleaded guilty was sentanced only 15 yrs & would walk around in 3 yrs & her husband who pleaded innocent got 30 yrs. while Mrs Greenglass who was a spy courier still walks around free. She said that we people in the audience cannot realize how horrible it is and that after thirty years she & her husband will not be able to enjoy what they could be enjoying now, & thatif we the people let our government destroy Ethel & Julius Rosenberg that means that we ourselves are that much nearer to being destroyed. She stated, how could we trust our Dept. of Justice since the message from Pope PUis XI was not recognized until just recently.

"She ended her speech & then donations were asked for. The audience seemed ready to give all."

Source orally advised SA [redacted] on February 16, 1953, that the meeting referred to above was sponsored by the Cleveland Council of the Arts Sciences and Professions. The party was to raise funds for Myrtle Dennis. There were many people there, who I have never seen before. Meals were sold for $1.00 a peice and a great many drinks was sold. I would say that the party was a financial success. The talk was all about Myrtles case, and how it could happen to any one of us. They gave out a pamphlet about Myrtle which if you read will present their whole case.

MARY TURNER spoke about the MYRTLE DENNIS case and referred to the FBI as the 'Gestapo' and admonished the FBI for arresting MYRTLE DENNIS and leaving her six weeks old child alone. E. C. He also stated that the work the Party is doing is for the good of the country and they are right in their ideals. Re: [redacted]

Dear Sir:

Rebulet 11-12-52 authorizing payment to the above-captioned informant of $150.00 per month plus actual expenses incurred.

During the month of March, 1953, the above informant incurred actual expenses of $65.10. This figure is in excess of the usual expenses incurred by this informant in the past and the reason therefor is being furnished the Bureau for its information.

[redacted] has been unusually active during the month of March primarily in the activities of a Defense Committee recently organized in behalf of [redacted] an SI subject who was recently arrested in Cleveland [redacted] (Bufile 100-366821). The informant has been made Chairman of the [redacted] Defense Committee and as such has been working almost on a full-time basis for the committee. The informant's reports are comprehensive and well written.

The expenses submitted by the informant have been examined closely and there appeared no reason to question their legitimacy. Reimbursement was therefore made.

[redacted] A justification letter is due in the near future concerning and at that time the informant's activities will be detailed in accordance with existing Bureau instructions.

It was felt, however, that the Bureau should be aware at this time of the reason for the above average expenses incurred by [redacted] during March, 1953.

Dear Sir:

Remylet 10-15-52 and Bulet 10-27-52 authorizing payment to captioned informant at the rate of $150.00 per month plus actual expenses incurred for a six month period terminating May 1, 1953.

Since submission of referenced Cleveland letter [redacted] has submitted 46 typewritten reports and a very large amount of Communist literature, although during this six-month period the informant underwent a serious operation which curtailed her activities for approximately five weeks. [redacted] submits clear, well-written reports.

[redacted] as the Bureau is aware, is a housewife and thus has been able to devote most of her time to Communist activities.

The informant was recently made chairman of the [redacted] Defense Committee, a newly created organization, the purpose of which is to raise funds for the defense of [redacted] who was recently arrested in connection with a passport violation (Bufile 100-366821). It is, therefore, recommended that authority be granted to increase payments to the above informant up to $175.00 per month for services plus actual expenses incurred for a period of six months effective May 1, 1953.

evidently as the last speaker of the evening. He was saying that we were the government, and that we wanted the government to do as we asked. The party was evidently held to raise funds for STEVE NELSON, because [redacted] handed out a pamphlet, "A Living Bill of Rights," which concerned NELSON's case in Pittsburgh. b6 b7C

"After the talk by [redacted] the evening was spent dancing, singing, drinking and eating. The food was free, for a change. A young white boy played the guitar and accompanied the singing. FRIEDA KATZ danced and sang to Negro spirituals. She knows them all and does these things only to get the favor and sympathy of the Negroes so that they will support the group financially. One song was sung about Jim Crowism, and the words were something about all of us sitting in the front of the bus going south to Virginia. It was a disgusting performance.

"A petition for STEVE NELSON was there, and I signed it for [redacted] said she would not sign the damn thing so that anyone could get her name. She said it loud enough so that I know she was heard by [redacted] and FRIEDA KATZ. I told you before [redacted] doesn't like her husband's part in these things.

"I heard that [redacted] are going to Buffalo, where [redacted] has been sent by his union. I will know more about this later. [redacted] told me that [redacted] once had said he owed everything to [redacted] who is responsible for his position today. [redacted] is a 100 per cent believer in the CRC and other such organizations. [redacted] birthday was that day, and [redacted] had baked a cake for him.

"To be accepted by these people one must spend the money and time or he is not wanted. They work hard all the time, sometimes getting to two meetings an evening. They are happy about the achievements in NELSON's and MYRTLE DENNIS' cases. MYRTLE is scared about the outcome of her trouble with the State Department.

[redacted] was telling [redacted] that he had learned a great deal from their talk at [redacted] a while back. (See serial 17). You will recall [redacted] explained KARL MARX to [redacted] This is the second time I have seen him. I got his last name from the petition for NELSON, and he lives at [redacted] I saw also that [redacted] signed the petition, and he lives at [redacted]

MEMO SAC

"JULIA BROWN was not there. [redacted] told me she is one of the hardest workers, and is always attending meetings in Cleveland and other cities.

"This was mainly a CRC affair, but I saw people there who are Negro Labor Council, Progressive Party and Sojourners members, which proves what I have always claimed - that they are all connected and work together for the same things."

The informant provided the above-mentioned literature, "A Living Bill of Rights," published by the Civil Rights Congress, 147 Washington Place, Pittsburgh 19, Pennsylvania. This pamphlet quotes editorial from the Pittsburgh "Post Gazette" and urges the reader to take certain actions in STEVE NELSON's case. It also urges the reader to order a copy of "The Volunteers" by STEVE NELSON, which is a story of his battles against the Franco-Fascists in Spain. She told MYRTLE she remmbered her when she first got back from Europe said she had met her at a meeting at SOL's. This was said to be untrue for everyone at that meeting was known to the group. The woman then picked out JEAN and called her by name. JEAN says she does not know the woman. She told MYRTLE she read of her story in a Calif. paper and cried to think of such a thing happening yet she had said she was in Cleveland.

"When the woman left she was followed by EDITH on a bike. She went to a car said a few words and went to the drug store. There she was met by UR ? (they called him a FBI agent for the red squad.)

Informant was unable to observe in whose name the money was being carried, but it was referred to as the money which has been raised for the [redacted] fund.

JULIA BROWN brought a radio to the meeting which is to be raffled off at some future date to raise funds to pay [redacted] attorney's fees. The radio was donated by one [redacted] who either owns or is employed in an appliance store on Cleveland's West Side. This individual may be identical with [redacted]

DON ROTHENBERG also came into the meeting but departed early because he had another appointment. The meeting was chiefly taken up with a discussion of H.B. 308 and 575. It was emphasized at the meeting that time was running out and if something wasn't done immediately these bills would be passed.

The sending of a delegation to the office of Mayor BURKE to protest the passage of H. B. 308 was discussed and volunteers were sought. [redacted] JULIA BROWN, (not positive re BROWN) and [redacted] volunteered.

There was also a discussion concerning the sending of a delegation to Columbus regarding this same matter. Members were also requested to wire or call Gov. LAUSCHE, JULIA BROWN volunteered to pay for a long distance call to the Govornor if she could use someone elses name. b6 b7C

On July 25, 1953, captioned informant telephonically contacted the writer advising that she had attended a Civil Rights Congress meeting on the previous night. While there, JULIA BROWN reportedly advised her she was going to Chicago, Illinois within the next few days to care for a sick relative and would not be able to contact persons she was scheduled to contact in connection with the FRANK HASHMALL appeal. BROWN reportedly asked [redacted] to advise FRIEDA KATZ that BROWN would be unable to assist in the contacts for the HASHMALL case. Captioned informant reportedly told BROWN that she would have to contact KATZ herself.

The informant stated that a short time later in the evening, she overheard BROWN indicating to someone else at the meeting that BROWN would be very active in HASHMALL's appeal.

The informant stated she was passing this information along to the writer inasmuch as she felt BROWN's actions were inconsistent.

Before the party got under way [redacted] brought in the General Electric clock which he purchased to be raffled off at the party. He also prepared the tickets for the raffle. [redacted] who was present at the party, has not been around to meetings recently due to a falling out with the Sojourners. FRIEDA KATZ and [redacted] arrived at the party early in the evening but departed for a time to [redacted] who was having a birthday party that same evening; however, they both came back later.

Informant advised that [redacted] has been present at many CRC affairs in the past but until this night his name was not known by informant.

A white male, about sixty, wearing glasses, named PETE, was present selling the "Daily Workers" and "Sunday Workers." PETE says he sells the "Daily Workers" and "Sunday Workers" by placing them on newsstands and at bookshops. He sells the remainder wherever he can.

MEMO SAC

The 308 Bill was discussed and leaflets are being prepared for distribution which will urge opposition to this bill.

FRIEDA KATZ asked for more money for the CRC. She related how badly funds are needed to carry on the work of the organization. She said that a plan must be worked out to raise money in order to help Mrs. FRANK HASHMALL.

FRIEDA indicated that the CRC has marked up one victory in that their efforts to reduce the bond of STEVE NELSON has been successful. The CRC was rebuffed by the Cleveland Plain Dealer when an attempt was made to get an article published concerning HASHMALL.

Informant advised that he understands that [redacted] and another attorney who worked on the HASHMALL case are being disbarred for contempt of court.

Pledges were sought for bond money for FRANK HASHMALL. Informant was unable to determine how much was pledged. Money is also being sought for the defense of the Communists who were recently arrested in California.

[redacted] JULIA BROWN, [redacted] FRIEDA KATZ and [redacted] [redacted] are planning a trip to Akron to attend sessions of Ohio Un-American Activities Commission. The contingent will go on either September 6 or September 7, 1953. b6 b7C

[redacted] sold copies of the "Daily Worker" at the meeting.

Care should be used in the dissemination of the above information so as not to disclose the identity of the informant.

Dear Sir:

Remylet 4-17-53, approved by the Bureau 4-27-53, which authorized payment to captioned informant at the rate of $175.00 per month for services, plus actual normal expenses incurred, for a six month period terminating November 1, 1953.

Since submission of referenced Cleveland letter, this informant has submitted 49 typewritten reports and a very large amount of Communist literature. She continues to devote most of her time to Communist activities.

The informant continues as Chairman of the [redacted] Defense Committee (Bufile 100-366821) and is particularly active in this organization.

[redacted] in addition, continues to be very active in the National Negro Labor Council, of which she is an officer; the Civil Rights Congress; the Sojourners for Truth and Justice, and the Progressive Party. The informant has very close contact with FRIEDA KATZ, who was arrested October 6, 1953, on charges of violating the Smith Act, and continues to maintain KATZ's confidence. The informant also has close contact with many other CP members and is well regarded by them.

It is therefore recommended that authority be granted to continue payments to the above informant up to $175.00 per month for services, plus actual normal expenses incurred, for a period of six months, effective November 1, 1953.

Very truly yours,

per man is either $19.00 or $20.00 and there was not a clear understanding as to the requirements of the union (It was stated by another member that the Beige Room required 8 pieces according to union rules. [redacted] that the Ballroom would seat about 1500 persons and that number of chairs were being secured.

He stated that typewriters and mimeograph machines were being secured in sufficient numbers to take care of the clerical work of the convention; also typists and stenographers of the most efficient type that Chicago affords.

All the meetings (business) are to be held in the Ball room. A Mass rally is to be held at a church, which has not yet been selected, due to the fact, one of sufficient size and proper location is to be taken into consideration. This report was received after being discussed by the group. A special phase was then presented by [redacted] that of the Hugh Bryson Frame up. [redacted] stated that the m ny leaders of labor were being jepordized and asked that something be done by the council to show that they had the support of the council. He stated that his union the Marine Cooks & Stewards was the one union that had followed to the letter the program of the council. It was voted that the council donate $25.00 from its National treasury to the defense fund for Brysons defense.

The Railroad committee report was made by [redacted] of Detroit in [redacted]

b7C

In the discussion, it was pointed out by [redacted] that there is not enough concrete material on the many hiring phases and departments of the railroads to really do a good job of attacking the railroad problem. He stated that he had compiled quite a bit of materials and would be glad to submit it to the committee for them to build the ground work for its future action. The report was received by be vote of the group.

The report of the Church Mobilization Committee was [redacted] in the [redacted]

In the discussion of this report it was suggested that the committee compile Memos on how to work best with the churches, citing the work of Cleveland, Chica go and others that have successfully coordinated the work of the local councils with the churches of the communities.

It was brought out by [redacted] that [redacted] knew how to contact the heads of the various churches and he would supervise the sending of invitations to the Ministers of America both white and colored.

[redacted] asked that if there were any "Labor and Religion" groups in any of the cities [redacted] would appreciate receiving the names of the Presidents of such groups.

The report of the Defense Committee was made by [redacted] who reported that the committed would work with the attorney. [redacted] and would work as he advises to the best of the council. b6 b7C

This report was received. Bert Washington, Chairman was absent.

The last phase on the Agenda, Finance, was then [redacted] of the [redacted] he would not read the entire report but gave the balance in treasury which was $29.71. Of this amount 25.00 had been voted out for Hugh Bryson defense and the balance was $4.71. He stated that the financing of the convention depends on the money which comes from the local councils and especially the six Major Councils which were wired and asked to send $500.00 each to finance the convention. To date none had responded and it was feared that the same thing would happen as had occurred in previous years, that money would have to be borrowed to get the convention under way. He stated that each member was assessed $5.00 and the ads were to be sold none of which has come in to the National Headquarters. He was asked how much money would be needed to finance the convention, after conferring with the chairman of Arrangements, he said that $5000.00 $3000.00 for National Headquarters and $2000.00 for the host council. He pointed out that $900.00 was now due to be paid for the printing of the calls. (10,000 copies already printed and 40,000 to be printed.

The discussion which followed was led by the chairman who presented a check for $150.00 from his Local in Washington D.C., the Cafeteria waiters and stewards. [redacted] reported that she had mislaid a check (blank) which she was to have drawn for $110.00 for Cleveland Council and she would mail another Monday. [redacted] said the Chicago Council had $40.00 to be given immediately and [redacted] brought a check for $150.00 and pledged an additional $100.00 at an early date from the New York Council. [redacted] paid her assessment of $5.00

[redacted] related that she felt that the unions should share the expense but said she had been flatly refused by the head of her union when she presented the cause in a meeting. He refused on the ground that he council was being listed as subversive.

A [redacted] Chicago labor official who attended this session only, wanted to enlist the backing of the council because of the vicious attacks on labor leaders because even he might be next to be attacked.

[redacted] was authorized by the body to borrow $500.00 in order to definitely secure the hotel Ballroom.

b6

The question of whether a paid publicity person should be secured. [redacted] did not favor hiring such a person unless the money was in hand to pay him. He made amotion to this effect which passed with a 2 vote majority.

The six Major Councils are New York, New Jersey, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit and California.

Dear Sir:

Remylet 4-17-53, approved by the Bureau 4-27-53, which authorized payment to captioned informant at the rate of $175.00 per month for services, plus actual normal expenses incurred, for a six month period terminating November 1, 1953.

Since submission of referenced Cleveland letter, this informant has submitted 49 typewritten reports and a very large amount of Communist literature. She continues to devote most of her time to Communist activities.

The informant continues as Chairman of the [redacted] Defense Committee (Bufile 100-366821) and is particularly active in this organization.

[redacted] in addition, continues to be very active in the National Negro Labor Council, of which she is an officer; the Civil Rights Congress; the Sojourners for Truth and Justice, and the Progressive Party. The informant has very close contact with FRIEDA KATZ, who was arrested October 6, 1953, on charges of violating the Smith Act, and continues to maintain KATZ's confidence. The informant also has close contact with many other CP members and is well regarded by them.

It is therefore recommended that authority be granted to continue payments to the above informant up to $175.00 per month for services, plus actual normal expenses incurred, for a period of six months, effective November 1, 1953.

Very truly yours,
